The Ayd Mill Road Scoping Document and Draft Scoping Decision Document was published February 6, 1995. A Public Scoping meeting was held March 2, 1995 to receive comments. After a delay due to administrative matters, the Ayd Mill Road Scoping Decision Document was published May 13, 1996. Copies of both documents were distributed to agencies, interested persons, elected and appointed officials and libraries. A press release was published to inform citizens of the documents' availability.

Coordination has been initiated and will continue with appropriate Federal, State and local agencies, and private organizations and citizens who have previously expressed or are known to have an interest in this project. A formal public hearing will be held in the project area following release of the Draft EIS. Public notice will be given for the time and place of the hearing. The Draft EIS will be available for public and agency review and comment prior to the public hearing.

To ensure that all significant issues relating to this proposed action are addressed, comments and suggestions are invited from all interested parties. Comments or questions concerning this proposed project and the EIS should be directed to the City of St. Paul at the address provided above.

Surface Transportation Board<sup>1</sup>

[Docket No. AB-6 (Sub-No. 374)]

Burlington Northern Railroad Company—Adverse Discontinuance—in Denver, CO

[Docket No. AB-33 (Sub-No. 92)]

Union Pacific Railroad Company—Adverse Discontinuance—in Denver, CO

AGENCY: Surface Transportation Board.

ACTION: Notice of findings.

SUMMARY: The Board has found that the public convenience and necessity permit: (1) Burlington Northern Railroad Company to discontinue trackage rights and service over a section of rail line generally running along National Western Drive (in the "National Western Drive Corridor"), from the intersection of the track, on the south, with the rail line that runs generally along the east bank of the South Platte River (in the "River Corridor"), to the inactive connection with the line of track of the Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad Company along Franklin Street, on the north, and to, but not across, the right-of-way for Race Court, on the northeast, in the Denver Stockyards, Denver, CO, a total distance of approximately 0.8 miles; and (2) Union Pacific Railroad Company to discontinue trackage rights and service over two sections of rail line, totaling approximately 1.2 miles in distance, in the Denver Stockyards, Denver, CO, consisting of: (a) in the "River Corridor," the section of line adjacent to the east bank of the South Platte River, from a point 600 feet north of the intersection of the River Corridor track with the northwestern right-of-way line of National Western Drive to the west right-of-way line of Franklin Street; and (b) in the "National Western Drive Corridor," the section of line adjacent to National Western Drive, from the intersection of the line with the south right-of-way line of East 46th Street to the intersection of the line with the east

<sup>1</sup> The ICC Termination Act of 1995, Pub. L. No. 104-88, 109 Stat. 803 (the Act), which was enacted on December 29, 1995, and took effect on January 1, 1996, abolished the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) and transferred certain functions and proceedings to the Surface Transportation Board (Board). Section 204(b)(1) of the Act provides, in general, that proceedings pending before the ICC on the effective date of that legislation shall be decided under the law in effect prior to January 1, 1996, insofar as they involve functions retained by the Act. This notice relates to a proceeding that was pending with the ICC prior to January 1, 1996, and to functions that are subject to Board jurisdiction pursuant to 49 U.S.C. 10903 and 10904.
